

About Us

we are wine enthusiasts that curate individual wine strategies for retailers, assisting them from marketing campaigns to shelf rotation in stores

Edoardo Freddi USA is an Austin (Texas) based importing agency that directly partners with carefully selected Italian wineries to represent them across the United States.

We work with reliable partners to build long term opportunities.

Business Model

Edoardo Freddi USA provides all services of a traditional national importer in the most transparent and reliable manner

Edoardo Freddi USA partners with carefully selected wine producers. Edoardo Freddi USA efficiently represent and market wine, which by-passes the high mark-ups of the traditional national importer in the three-tier system, allowing our distributors and clients to buy directly from the supplier while having Edoardo Freddi USA as trusted partner. This allows our wines to cost less than those of comparable quality.

Edoardo Freddi USA gives the opportunity to direct import wines or pick up the goods from our modern warehouse in New Jersey (NJ).
